AER LINGUS, IRISH AIRLINES NEGOTIATION UPDATE

Negotiations resumed this week under the auspices of the National Mediation Board with Mediator John Livingood chairing the meetings.

The company provided an update regarding its operation and financial condition.

Numerous scenarios were discussed during the meetings which focused on providing an Agreement that achieves certain financial goals while preserving the careers of our membership.

Meetings will resume July 14, 2010. During this recess the company will review the issues brought forward during this weeks discussions and be prepared to respond.

Your support is appreciated and is critical to bringing about a successful conclusion to these negotiations.

Fraternally yours,

Tom Higginbotham
GENERAL CHAIRMAN
