BRITISH AIRWAYS NEGOTIATIONS

We are scheduled to start negotiations on January 26 and January 27, 2012. The meetings will be held at the Company Corporate Headquarters at 2 Park Avenue, New York City.

British Airways management plans on holding staff briefings on Thursday, January 26, 2012, to brief all the employees on the proposals they have submitted.

The IAM employee negotiating committee is scheduled to meet with them at 09:30am on Thursday and the Company has scheduled staff briefings starting at 11:00am that same day.

Once we have exchanged proposals with the Company copies of both the Company and the Union proposals will be sent to all stations and locations. The proposals will be scanned and saved in .pdf format and sent out via email to all the shop stewards at every location.

I have the email addresses of most of the shop stewards that work at each location.

If you work at a station or location that has more than one IAM represented work group, i.e. Customer Service, Engineering, Baggage Services, Telecommunications or Customer Relations the shop stewards need to make sure that copies are distributed to all of the other IAM represented groups at your location.

If necessary we will schedule conference calls, at a later date, with the all the stations to answer any questions or concerns you might have.

Please do not listen to rumors or speculation. If you have any questions or concerns please communicate those to your shop stewards. All of the shop stewards have my email address and phone number and can call me directly to voice your stations concerns or ask whatever questions the membership might have.

Fraternally,

Michael Manzo
