Blizzard 2010 Update

With the East Coast being paralyzed by a blizzard we wanted to contact our members and let them know we are in communication with the company.

The most critical information is as follows:

1. The Union is passing any information it receives from the membership to the Company and Scheduling is working to update your schedules as quickly as they can.
2. Expect lengthy wait times to get through to Scheduling. Call volume is extremely high.
3. With crews being out of position the company is asking anyone who wants to do so to pick up a trip out of Houston.
4. Continental has just advised ExpressJet that EWR is closed through noon on Tuesday December 28, 2010.
5. If you are Newark based, once EWR re-opens you may check with an Inflight Supervisor or Crew Scheduling about getting positive space to reposition or working to your domicile.
6. Hotels are in short supply but the company has provided them for those stranded as they become available.
7. We will continue to keep in touch with the company and monitor the situation.

The Union reminds flight attendants that all violations to the contract should be reported to your base grievance representatives. All problems should be thoroughly documented including your description of the situation, any pay claims, copies of schedules and pairings, and contacts with the company.

In solidarity,
