ERJ DFW Commuter Clause

We have spoken to the Company and DFW flight attendants will be able to utilize American Airlines as part of your Conscientious Reporting aka Commuter Clause. In addition, because we are unable to view boarding totals in the same manner as on United flying benefits you will not be required to provide boarding totals at the time of listing. However, two boarding passes printed at the airport will still be required. Also, if you are DFW based and utilizing United flight benefits to commute, you are still required to present boarding totals at the time of listing and the two boarding passes printed at the airport. All other provisions regarding timing of the flights, etc...still apply. If you have any questions please contact me at Sgonzales@iamDL142.org

Thanks!
