International Cabin Crew Day

The IAM in recognizing our incredible Flight Attendant Sisters and Brothers who protect the skies each day, would like to wish you a Happy International Cabin Crew Day!

Our responsibility comes with many misperceptions regarding our roles once passengers board our aircrafts. We ensure the safety and security of the flying public and our pilot co-workers. Sadly, most Flight Attendants are significantly under-appreciated. We would like to take this opportunity to thank all our Flight Attendant members at ExpressJet, Open Skies, and Commutair, along with all Flight Attendants across the world for their hard work and dedication in doing such a great and important job.

May 31st represents International Cabin Crew Day, and so IAM District 142 would like to give back to you as a token of our appreciation. While you are flying on Sunday, we will have several IAM representatives across various bases with a small “thank-you.”

Be sure to stop by the IAM tables in the lounges of ATL, CLE, DFW, EWR, IAH or IAD (Commutair).

Keep up the amazing work you do, it does not go unnoticed!

Fly Safe.

Fraternally,

David Supplee
