BRITISH AIRWAYS NEGOTIATIONS UPDATE

Negotiations between the IAMAW and British Airways took place on June 17, 2014 this week to continue discussions on an alternative healthcare proposal through the IAM Benefit Trust. Though we have made some progress in our talks the outstanding issues have still not been resolved. The Company outsourcing proposals are still part of their package.

Mediator John Livingood was present as well as Steve Priest and Stacey Gulden representing British Airways. Present for the Union was Grand Lodge Representative Edison Fraser, General Chair Mike Manzo, and Negotiating Committee Members John Reisert and Reggie Gauthier. Harvey Berman was on vacation and unable to attend. He has been briefed on the talks that took place.

We are scheduled to meet again in an attempt to resolve all remaining issues. We are hopeful that we will be able to resolve the remaining issues in the forthcoming days. Another update will follow next week after the next meeting.

Sincerely and fraternally,

Michael Manzo
