IAM Members at Hawaiian Airlines Ratify Contracts

IAM Districts 141 and 142 today announced that IAM members at Hawaiian Airlines overwhelmingly ratified recent tentative agreements covering approximately 2,200 Mechanic and Related, Clerical, Office, Stores, Fleet Service and Passenger Service Employees at the carrier.

The five year accords provide pay increases, enhanced job security, hold the line on health care costs and secures profit sharing and other incentive programs.

"I'd like to thank the members at Hawaiian Airlines and their negotiating committees for bargaining and approving agreements that they can be proud of," said General Vice President Sito Pantoja. "Both District Lodge 141 and 142 did a great job coordinating this round of bargaining, demonstrating the solidarity of all IAM members at Hawaiian Airlines."

IAM Districts 141 and 142 initiated contract negotiations with Hawaiian Airlines in December, 2013 and announced tentative agreements last month.

"We'd like to thank the members at Hawaiian Airlines for their patience, support and solidarity during this round of bargaining," said District 141 and 142 Presidents Mike Klemm and Dave Supplee, respectively. "The negotiating committees did an outstanding job and all IAM members at Hawaiian Airlines can be proud of these agreements."
